

Reuters makes note in this story that Congressman Pence and other members of Congress are asking the Government Accounting Office to look into fraud involving North Korea and the U.S. government.